To carry out the purpose for which it was founded twenty-eight years ago, namely, "the increase and diffusion of geographic knowledge," the National Geographic Society publishes this Magazine. All receipts from the publication are invested in the Magazine itself or expended directly to promote geographic knowledge and the study of geography. Articles or photographs from members of the Society, or other friends, are desired. For material that the Society can use, adequate remuneration is made. Contributions should be accompanied by an addressed return envelope and postage, and be addressed:

BOOKS OF EXCEPTIONAL INTEREST AND UNSURPASSED EDUCATIONAL VALUE, which are available to members of the National Geographic Society. If published for purely commercial reasons, the price of these volumes would be several times as great.

"WILD ANIMALS OF NORTH AMERICA," intimate studies of the big and little citizens of the mammal kingdom, by E. W. NELSON. Illustrated with 64 pages of full color reproductions from paintings by Louis Agassiz Fuertes; 50 sketches of wild animal tracks by Ernest Thompson Seton, and numerous black and white half-tones. Bound in royal buckram (stiff covers), or military khaki (flexible covers), $3.00.

"FLAGS OF THE WORLD," by Commander BYRON MCCANDLESS and GILBERT GROSVENOR. A handsomely bound volume of 150 pages, containing 1,197 flags in their full colors, 300 illustrations in black and white, the complete insignia of the uniformed forces of the United States, the international flags in use on land and sea, together with an epitomized history of each flag, and an authoritative history of the "Star Spangled Banner." Bound in royal buckram (stiff covers), or military khaki (flexible covers), $2.00.

"THE BOOK OF BIRDS," 200 pages, illuminated with 250 matchless subjects in full colors, 45 illustrations in black and white, and 13 striking charts and maps. Bound in royal buckram (stiff covers), or military khaki (flexible covers), $3.00.

"ALASKAN GLACIER STUDIES," illustrated with more than 200 reproductions from photographs, 68 sketches, and 9 maps in colors, compiled by Ralph Stockman Tarr and Lawrence Martin. Handsomely bound in red linen, price, $3.50.

"WASHINGTON—THE NATION'S CAPITAL," by WILLIAM H. TAFT, Former President of the United States, and JAMES BRYCE, Former British Ambassador; 35 pages of color illustrations, 50 pages of half-tones, 2 large panoramas, and a map in color. Bound in cloth, price, $3.00.

"SCENES FROM EVERY LAND" (Third Series). Price, bound in full leather only, $2.50.

"SCENES FROM EVERY LAND" (Fourth Series), 200 full-page illustrations, 24 pages in 4 colors, 20,000 words of descriptive text, by GILBERT GROSVENOR, Editor NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC MAGAZINE. Cloth, $2.00; full leather, $2.50.

EARLIER ISSUES OF THE NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC MAGAZINE are in many cases available and copies for reference and study-club work may be obtained from these offices usually at 25 cents each. An index of articles published in the past which are useful for such studies has been prepared and will be furnished upon request.

These books are obtainable only from the Society's Washington headquarters, 16th and M Streets N. W. Postpaid in the United States.

To carry out the purpose for which it was founded thirty-one years ago, namely, "the increase and diffusion of geographic knowledge," the National Geographic Society publishes this Magazine. All receipts from the publication are invested in the Magazine itself or expended directly to promote geographic knowledge and the study of geography. Articles or photographs from members of the Society, or other friends, are desired. For material that the Society can use, adequate remuneration is made. Contributions should be accompanied by an addressed return envelope and postage, and be addressed:
